

As read in Bylaws presently Article VII:

Article VII: Awards

Section 1: The Division establishes and recognizes the following awards for individuals: the Distinguished Service Award—this award shall be for sustained service to the Kentucky Division above and beyond the call of duty. The Meritorious Service Award—this award shall be for extraordinary service in a singular instance. Any member of the Division may nominate persons for these awards to the Division Commander. The Distinguished Service Award must be approved by the Division Executive Council, and current members of the DEC are not eligible for it.

Section 2: The Division establishes and recognized the following awards for camps: The Camp Boone Award—one to be given to the camp with the largest number of new members in the previous year and one to be given to the camp with the largest percentage of members in the previous year. The Squire Bottom Award—shall be given to the camp which has achieved the greatest excellence in marking graves in the previous year. The James William Moore Award—shall be awarded to camps which retain 90% or more of their members from January 31st to the February 1st cutoff.

Amendment to Article VII Awards Presentation Guidelines :

Article VII: Awards

Section 1: The Division establishes and recognizes the following awards for individuals:

John C. Breckenridge Award / Distinguished Service Award—this award shall be for sustained service to the Kentucky Division above and beyond the call of duty. This will be awarded once in a member's lifetime. This award includes a Medal and a Certificate.

Simon Bolivar Buckner Award / The Meritorious Service Award—this award shall be for extraordinary service in a singular instance. This will be awarded once in a member's lifetime. This award includes a Medal and a Certificate.

Any member of the Division may nominate persons for these awards to the Division Adjutant. Current members of the DEC are eligible for the awards if the member's nomination is recommended by the Division Nominating Committee. The Division Nominating Committee will make the final selection of Award winners by choosing from the nominations submitted by the membership to the Division Adjutant. Award Nomination forms are available on the KY. Division Website.

Section 2: The Division establishes and recognizes the following awards for camps: The Camp Boone Award—one to be given to the camp with the largest number of new members in the previous year and one to be given to the camp with the largest percentage of members in the previous year. The Squire Bottom Award—shall be given to the camp which has achieved the greatest excellence in marking graves in the previous year. The James William Moore Award—shall be awarded to camps which retain 90% or more of their members from January 31st to the February 1st cutoff.

All nominations must be sent to the Division Adjutant (2) two months prior to the Division Reunion.